Deposed President's Life Hangs in Balance-Six Million Pesos Graft.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) CITY OF MEXICO, February 21 .-(Special to The Advertiser)—President linerta today assured Senora Madero that her husband, the deposed President, is in no immediate danger of execution. Madero's wife is prostrated and under the care of physicians. Huerta's assurance was given out of sympathy for her condition.

Another Revolution Starts.

The state of Chihuahua has flatly re jected General Huerta as head, of the government, and reports received here state that the revolution started in northern Mexico has increased in vio-lence. It is believed here that all rebel Senders, with the possible exception of General Orozco, Jr., would oppose the new government.

President Huerta today plans to send couriers to eneral Orozco, General Zapata and other rebel leaders, with noti-fications that they must cooperate in restoring order.

'In case they refuse to obey the order," says Huerta, "they will be de-elared outlaws and exterminated."

That Gustavo Madero was not informed that he was to be executed and that his killing was nothing short of murder s the opinion of many residents here today. It is stated by an eye-witness to the shooting that Madero was led to believe that he was merely being taken from one part of the arms. being taken from one part of the arac-nal to another, when the soldiers in the yard opened fire on him.

Plunging, aeross sunit billows and riding swiftly upon the crest of the reef-combed rollers of Waikiki Bay yesterday, a fleet of war canoes brought the conquering army of Kamehameha the Great to Oahu, the first seeme in the first historical pageant ever staged in the Territory.

As if rising from out of the sen, the outrigger fleet of forty canoes came spadenly into view of the thousands massed upon the shore of Waikiki Bay, seahortly hefore ten o'clock. Now deep billows hid the fleet, leaving only the tips of the spears visible; now they swung apart and scattered, and again came together again, a moving, fascianting spectacle.

CHRISTIANS ARE MURDERED BY TURKS

Village Depopulated and Women Survivors Held Prisoners by the Soldiers.

(Hy Federal Wireless Telegraph.) SOFIA, Bulgaria, February 21.-(Special to The Advertiser) - More than one hundred Christians, men women and children, were massacred by the Turkish troops recently when maddened by the religious beliefs and hely war declared in the Tehatalja district. According to official dispatches received by the Bulgarian government today, the illage of Kenaminso was wiped out.

The partial withdrawal of the Bulforces from the region has left thoumains of Christians unprotected from the Turks. Half-a-dozen towns and villages have been raided and the out-rages of the Turkish soldiers proceed unchecked by their officers. Only a few of the women in the villages were allowed to survive. These are said to be held captive in the Tarkish ranks. May Welcome Intervention,
